

6516208132.txt

I travel all over repairing hail damage to vehicles and traffic and weather are two unpredictable things that can seriously affect your travel plans when you're driving. XM keeps me informed of both of these and has helped me plan my trips several times. I love the service and would hate to see it disappear. It's far more convenient to listen to than it is to look it up on the internet when I'm going down the road.